

Afternoon tea with Krish Kandiah!

Come and have tea with us, on June 23rd, from 4 to 6 pm,
In the hall at Christ Church, Northcourt Rd, Abingdon.

Hear Krish Kandiah speak, ask questions and find out more about how our churches can get involved in fostering and adoption

Please stay for the evening service from 6.30 pm
Everyone welcome!

RSVP if possible, for catering purposes, to jillward99@yahoo.co.uk or tiabeamy@googlemail.com

Krish is the founding director of Home For Good, a charity seeking to find loving homes for vulnerable children in the care system. He is an advocate for fostering and adoption. He has written 13 books including the catalytic "Home for Good: Making a Difference for Vulnerable Children" Dr Kandiah has been published in the Times of London. the Guardian and is a regular broadcaster on BBC National Radio.